ORDER ON MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT<sup>1</sup>

On June 18, 1999 I issued a written opinion (Docket No. 13) denying the motion of the Brunswick School Department<sup>2</sup> in Docket No. 99-114-P-DMC, an action that has now been consolidated with Docket No. 98-400-P-DMC, for summary judgment in that action. At that time the Brunswick School Department was ordered to show cause, by a filing made on or before June 28, 1999, why the court should not enter summary judgment in favor of Paul Verhoeven and Donna Verhoeven on all claims made in that action. The Brunswick School Department has now indicated that, while it disagrees with my decision, it does not contend that summary judgment should not be entered for the Verhoevens on those claims under the circumstances. Letter dated June 29, 1999 from Melissa A. Hewey, Esq. to Susan Durst (Consolidated Docket No. 40).

<sup>1</sup> Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), the parties have consented to have United States Magistrate Judge David M. Cohen conduct all proceedings in this case, including trial, and to order entry of judgment.

<sup>2</sup> The names “Brunswick School Department” and “Brunswick School Committee” have been used in the two actions to refer the same entity. Brunswick School Department’s Motion to Consolidate, etc. (Docket No. 4) at 2 n.1.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that summary judgment be entered for Paul Verhoeven and Donna Verhoeven on all claims raised in the complaint in Docket No. 99-114-P-DMC.

Dated this 30th day of June, 1999.
